VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Cookies for Kids' Cancer, a fundraiser benefiting pediatric cancer research at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, needs your help baking 96,000 cookies!

Details: Volunteers are needed to bake, assemble and package three varieties of cookies. Almost everything involved in this project has been donated and your help ensures that almost 100% of the purchase price of each box of cookies is used for urgently needed pediatric cancer research.

Contact: Volunteers should e-mail Shirley Staples at STAPLESVANGEL@MAC.COM. Indicate the available day (or days!) between December 1 and 9; your available time slot; and your contact info. Shirley will confirm all with you by e-mail or phone. Please indicate if you have culinary experience when e-mailing Shirley. (Please note that due to safety and liability issues, no volunteers under the age of 15.)

Background: This holiday fundraiser is sponsored by the BAND OF PARENTS (www.bandofparents.org), a non-profit foundation formed by parents of children being treated for cancer at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center. We are selling gourmet cookies, made using all natural ingredients and recipes from the recently published cookbook, Cookies, by Sally Sampson.

AND DON'T FORGET TO TELL YOUR FRIENDS AND FAMILY TO PLACE THEIR COOKIE ORDERS STARTING NOVEMBER 16 AT www.cookiesforkidscancer.org.

Give a part of your day and give hope to children with cancer for holidays to come.
